A LEGISLATIVE COMMEMORATION, Honoring Louie Krogman of White River, South Dakota, for setting the all-time scoring record for South Dakota boys' high school basketball.

WHEREAS, on December 20, 2007, Louie Krogman broke the fifty-year-old all-time scoring record of 2,825 points set by Don Jacobsen of Lake Norden when Louie scored twenty-eight points in White River's boys basketball game against Pine Ridge in the Lakota Nation Invitational Tournament, and set the new scoring record at 2,831 points; and

WHEREAS, Louie Krogman possesses a deep desire for the game of basketball, participating in the sport at a young age and crediting much of his success to his family for supporting him throughout his career; and

WHEREAS, Louie Krogman's basketball strengths including his ball handling, passing, court awareness, and competitive nature have led him to the opportunity to participate in Division I basketball at the University of South Dakota:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT COMMEMORATED, by the Eighty-Third Legislature of the State of South Dakota, that Louie Krogman be honored for setting the all-time scoring record for South Dakota boys' high school basketball.
